REWARDICAL™ is a powerful new loyalty program that allows your customers to automatically receive digital reward tokens that they can redeem for a variety of free products and other irresistible goodies (including Bitcoin!) at Rewardical.com.

There's no hardware to buy, no software to install, and no change to your normal checkout process is required. In other words, it's 100% hassle-free!

Even better, it's one of the most inexpensive ways EVER to attract new customers and keep your current customers coming back again and again!

You can get started TODAY by enrolling in Localvantia™, the network for local businesses that features REWARDICAL™ as its official reward token.

As a Localvantia merchant, your customers can automatically receive Rewardical tokens each time they make a purchase at your business! Enroll today and turn on happiness for them...and more business for you. It's that easy!
